

Maqbool Textile Mills Limited.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY POLICY

Introduction & Scope

The Maqbool Textile Mills Limited (MTML) promotes responsible business conduct that supports community growth for public interest, eliminates adverse practices impacting the public sphere and ensures corporate accountability. MTML has initiated corporate social responsibility (CSR) activities and uses self-assessment CSR governance benchmark.

Objective

The objective of CSR Policy is to promote the development of a framework for CSR initiatives by the company. The company is encouraged to strive and work in cooperation with stakeholders for implementing a transparent and socially responsible strategy.

Disclosure and Reporting

Company is expected to report concise and material information regarding their CSR policy and activities that may be consolidated and reported in the form of a separate CSR Report.

Other Philanthropic Activities, donations/contributions to charities and other social causes

M/s Allawasaya Textile and Finishing Mills Limited “MTML” (“the Company”), is actively involved in philanthropic activities for the welfare of deserving people of society including patients, students, orphans, widow women and disabled men and fulfills its role for poverty alleviation in the country. MTML has allowed use of its premises for installation of Water Filtration Plant in the vicinity of the mills for drinking water for general public. MTML has its own Employees and Workers Colony where they enjoy good living facilities.